

LOCAL HYDROPOWER CO-OPERATIVE SHARE OFFER TO BE LAUNCHED

MILSON & NEEN SOLLARS 'VICTORY HALL'
Saturday, February 18th, 10 am - 4 pm

A community group, Neen Sollars Community Hydropower Co-op Ltd, in Cleobury Country is seeking investors to help return the historic Tetstill Mill in Neen Sollars (near Cleobury Mortimer) to the harnessing of power from the River Rea by producing green energy for local people.

Full details of the hydropower project and the Share Offer will be available at this Launch Event.

Open to all members of the public, community organisations and local businesses.

Support local green power and get a decent return on your investment and substantial tax benefits
